

SOCIETY.

Mrs. Corey of Denver, aunt of James Corey, A. C. Co. hardware department, is visiting Mrs. W. H. Burns and attended the races yesterday.

Walker Carroll returned Thursday from a visit to Mrs. Soren's home at Cable.

Mrs. Nell and daughter, Mabel, left yesterday for Salt Lake and Denver, Clara, and Mrs. Betty were also of the party.

Mrs. J. J. Hennessy and niece returned Thursday from a delightful trip through the National park.

Dr. Snyder and son, Edna, are at home after a few days pleasantly spent in Hamilton as the guests of Harvey Murphy, superintendent of the lumber department for the A. C. Co.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Williams left this morning for Salt Lake City in company with a number of their friends, who will enjoy the fruit and flowers of that fertile coast for 10 days.

Judge Colburn was heroic enough to go to the race track despite broken ribs. Thursday, when his favorite pacer, Kate Medium, won first money.

Mrs. Odson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Adams formed a pleasant picnic party for Thursday afternoon and enjoyed the park lake for a boat ride.

Mrs. E. A. Mosely and her sister, Miss Green of Waukegan, Wis., arrived Monday to join Mr. Mosely at the Montana for a few days before settling in their new residence on West Sixth street, between Maple and Elm.

Mrs. W. C. Murphy of Missoula, who has been visiting her friend, Mrs. Murray Miles, of Hickory street, attended a company informally given on Wednesday afternoon of this week by Mrs. J. H. Durston; attended the races the first of the week and left Thursday afternoon for Race Track, accompanied by Mrs. Miles, to visit at that most hospitable and charming ranch, owned by an uncle of Mrs. Miles, and known far and wide as a symbol for entertainment, the Twoby ranch.

Mrs. W. H. Burns returned the first of the week from a visit to Salt Lake, and reports former Montana residents now settled in that city happy and well.

George Rockwood of Butte has visited the race track frequently during the past week.

The party given to celebrate the birthday of little Evelyn Eversen was the event of the week among the young people and at the seventh milestone of her life the little lady received many congratulations and numerous presents suggestive of the time. The house and lawn were utilized for the various games, and their beautiful decorations were only heightened by the flowerlike beauty of the little people themselves. A charming souvenir of the occasion for each guest consisted of a basket of candy, suspended by ribbons. Among those present we note the following list: Frances Winston, Eleanor Kennedy, Josie Shovers, Sophia Shovers, Edna Shovers, Philomena French, Gertrude McGinnis, Mabel Nell, Ray Diblee, Master Gardia, Claude McGinnis, Master Eversen. Mrs. Eversen was assisted in entertaining guests by Beatrice Trisberger and Mary Shovers.

Mrs. J. Lee Henry of Locust street has enjoyed a pleasant visit this week from her brother-in-law, Mr. Prevost, of San Francisco.

The West Side Whist club, which has always been so successful in its entertainments, scored another point in its usual game by giving a delightful picnic at the Anacoda park last Thursday. The usual members of the club, proper entertained some friends to fill the places of such absentees as Mrs. James Collins, now on a Canadian tour, and others who are in Salt Lake on an entertaining party. The following ladies were present: Mesdames Dr. Stephens, Thomas O'Brien, Tim Healy, Nadeau, Nolan, Frank Collins, Kelley, Canty, D. D. Twoby, James Twoby and her sister, who is visiting Anacoda at the moment.

Miss Higgins of Missoula came over to visit her brother, Frank Higgins, and attend the races. She returned on Tuesday.

Mrs. Fred W. Peckover entertained several of her friends at an informal sewing bee on Monday. The afternoon was spent sewing and talking, with light refreshments. Such entertainments are delightful and the latest in possible for one to become acquainted and serve as a happy diversion from the more formal affairs.

Miss Elizabeth Evans, who has been visiting Mrs. George Lamson of Deer Lodge, returned to Anacoda on Tuesday and was the guest of Mrs. Rod Williams for two days. She left on Thursday for Riverside ranch, where she will visit the Dales.

The guests returning from Riverside ranch report that it was never more beautiful than at present. Mr. and Mrs. James Evans are the latest to bear witness to this fact. They returned early in the morning from a 10 days' visit to their daughter, Mrs. M. Daly, and also report the weather delightful.

George Haldorn and wife of Butte attended the racing meeting during the past week.

J. A. Lewis was in Anacoda during the week.

George Linsley goes to Salt Lake City today to visit his family and meet his little daughter, Louise, the latest individual to claim his attention and demand an interview at as early a date as possible.

F. E. Sargeant is convalescing slowly, but has courage to meet the many questions showered upon him as to the cause of his accident with his usual complacent composure.

George W. Reynolds and wife went over to Hamilton on Monday to supervise the closing of the Biwall hotel and to enjoy a fishing excursion. They returned to Anacoda on Friday and Mrs. Reynolds' mother, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Reynolds' mother and daughter, Lillian, went to Riverside ranch on Wednesday to make an extended visit with Mrs. Daly.

Judge DeWitt and John C. Healy went on a fishing excursion the first of the week and were successful to a degree to render all their friends envious.

James Chambers and wife went to Big Timber last Monday to remain some time for the benefit of Mr. Chambers' health.

Anacoda has been enjoying many guests from abroad of late owing to the races, as there is quite a number who find their way to the Copper City at this time. Those who are among the more recent visitors are Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Johnson of Chestnut, Mont.; Mrs. W. J. Franks of Butte; Mrs. James P. Brown and W. D. Stofenburg of Bozeman, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Nolan of San Francisco, all of whom are guests at the Montana.

Major Johnston of Lexington, Ky., accompanied by his son, J. Stewart Johnston, and E. A. Smith of the refinery, visited Mr. Larabee's family last Sunday to renew old acquaintanceship and visit the fertile little city of Deer Lodge.

Mrs. Frank Strickfaden was a Butte visitor during the week.

Howard Rockefeller came down from Butte Wednesday, and joined his mother and his aunt, Mrs. Corey, who, with C. A. Tuttle and family, and Miss Mathews and Miss Sutherland, went to Brown's lake Thursday on a camping expedition.

The friends of Paul Mitchell of Warm Springs are most fortunate, as that young man makes many a heart glad by his visits on trolley-ho rides to the races. Such pleasures are not so numerous in Anacoda, and one enjoys them all the more for that reason.

Miss Nora Clinton of St. Paul, Minn., is spending a few weeks in Anacoda visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Twoby.

Miss Ramsdell, who is the guest of Mrs. Henry, rendered in charming style several musical selections at an informal company given at the residence of Mrs. J. H. Durston Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Fritsworth, who have recently come to Anacoda from Denver, are located at the Montana. Mr. Fritsworth will be associated with the Anacoda company at the converter. Newcomers are ever welcome to the already large circle of people living in the smelter town.

Mrs. Charles R. Hickey and Miss Blanche King returned yesterday on a most delightful trip through the Yellowstone park. They were the guests of Mrs. R. F. Leggat of Butte for a few days before returning to Anacoda.

In Butte.

It has been a very gay week in Butte, every day having an event of some kind for the ladies. The summer is in fact the gayest season of the year in Butte's social circles. Nowhere is the summer pleasanter than in this part of the country, the society leaders are usually at home and many lively visitors are usually attracted here from other cities. The present week promises to be just as gay as the week that has past. Two dancing parties and several card parties are fixed for the week.

Mrs. Thelma Lavell's reception on Thursday will long be remembered in Butte as a model in affairs of the kind. While elaborate and elegant, it was delightfully informal. Mrs. Lavell, possessing the happy faculty of making each one of her host of guests feel herself to be specially and individually welcome. Of a reception given by Mrs. Lavell it is superfluous to say that every guest had a most pleasant time. It was given in honor of the visiting young ladies in Butte, Miss Sherwood, Miss Lewis, Miss Hauser and Miss Boner. The house was decorated with exquisite taste, transformed into a bower of beauty by the profusion of flowers and palms. An orchestra of five pieces concealed behind a screen of palms furnished sweet music. A very dainty lunch was served in the dining room where Mrs. Lavell was assisted by Misses Anna Thornton, Lulu Foster, Fredrika and Carolyn. Elizabeth Kirkpatrick, Hattie Young, Adeline Pierce, Dimple Blackiston, Mae Pfouts, Dollie Noyes, Miss Marks and Miss Sims. The guests were Mesdames Connors, J. K. Clark, C. W. In Deer Lodge.

Deer Lodge, July 17.—By far the grandest affair of the kind that has occurred in Deer Lodge in many a day was the masque ball given by Miss Alma Bienenberg at her home on East Missouri avenue last evening, in honor of the Misses Bonner and Robinson of Missoula, and Misses Birdseye and Foster of Anacoda. The beautiful residence was handsomely decorated, the costumes worn by the guests were with the exception of those made up to create mirthful superb, and the music all that could be desired. Dancing was indulged in until 12 o'clock, when the masks were removed and the assembled guests sat down to a sumptuous collation of the choicest delicacies of the season. After supper dancing was resumed and continued until the "one sma' hours" of morn. All those in attendance expressed themselves as having had a most delightful time, and their praise of the fair hostess and an entertainment is unbounded. Everything passed off pleasantly without one jot or hitch to mar the general pleasure and gaiety of the occasion, and the only trace of regret, if such there were, was that such a brilliant and happy throng should part company. But all good times must have an ending, and at 2:30 a. m. the jolly gathering, after bidding the hostess and each other a happy good-bye, betook themselves to their homes.

President Martin of the College of Montana left on the noon train Wednesday for a business trip to Butte.

Miss Swift, teacher in the White public schools, after a visit to Miss Miller at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Prout, returned to Butte on Wednesday.

Dr. A. H. Mitchell and E. Girard were in town from Warm Springs Wednesday.

Mrs. Will Kennedy and Miss Ethel Trippett left on the noon train Wednesday for a short visit in Anacoda.

Invitations are out for a party to be given on Monday evening, July 19, by Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Reed and their daughter, Miss Edna, and a most enjoyable time is anticipated by the invited.

Miss Nina Bonner of Missoula came in on Tuesday evening's train and is visiting friends in the city.

Messrs. Jakey Viles Englebaum and Key Cohen of Indianapolis, young Israelites who are thinking of taking rabbinical orders, left on their wheels Monday afternoon for a week's visit in Missoula and vicinity. They were met at Bearmouth by Rabbi Morganowitz, who went down from Columbia to accompany them up the old Bear trail to that lively little quartz camp.

Mrs. Ramey of Wallace, Idaho, and her children came in on Sunday night's train and is visiting with her sister, Mrs. George Cockrell.

Mrs. A. D. Peck of Anacoda has been visiting friends here during the past week.

Charles P. Schermerhorn and wife drove over from Helena Monday in their private conveyance and enjoyed a few days' visit with Deer Lodge acquaintances. They were accompanied by Miss Bessie Horner.

Hiram S. Blanchard has in town the files made up by Helen Monday in E. H. Law, representing J. A. Folger & Co. of San Francisco, was in town Thursday. His wife has recently fallen ill to $40,000 by the death of an uncle.

Mrs. T. C. Stark has rented her home at the eastern end of Missouri avenue and taken her departure for Helena, where she will spend the remainder of the summer and fall with her daughter, Miss Edna. She left Tuesday.

Miss Lena Greve, who died in Hamburg on the 10th of this month, was a schoolmate of Mrs. Conrad Kohrs of Deer Lodge. She was also at one time an instructor of languages to the Duchess of Marlborough, nee Consuelo Vanderbilt.

H. G. Ward was a visitor in Anacoda Saturday and Sunday last.

John Astell of Butte has leased for the summer the residence of Mrs. Stark on Missouri avenue and with his family came down from there Monday and is now occupying the same.

Miss Mary Cockrell, after a two weeks' absence in Anacoda, where she has been visiting friends, returned home last Sunday evening. She had a most delightful time and while there was a guest of Mrs. Trisberger.

Miss Lucy Maywood is a guest of her friend, Miss Odie Marcotte, this week.

Miss Gracie Lewis, who made her home in Deer Lodge a year ago, but now of Missoula, is a guest this week of Miss Jennie Hall.

A letter received from Miss Mollie Wiles at Milwaukee, says the Montana contingent to the educational convention are having a delightful trip.

Mr. Pressly is a fine orator and presented his subject in a masterly manner.

Miss Alma Bienenberg gave a most delightful masque Monday evening to a number of friends. About 20 invitations were sent out, and all who attended had a most enjoyable time.

Capt. James H. Mills was over from Helena last Sunday and says Mrs. Mills, who is now at White Sulphur Springs treating for rheumatism, is not improving as fast as hoped for.

Miss Mary Wardle, who formerly taught school in Deer Lodge, is to be married the first week in August to Mr. Yonker, at her home in Poyntette, Wis.

In Boulder.

Boulder, July 17.—The hot weather seems to have a depressing effect on society—no parties, no church societies and few social events of any kind.

The hotels are well filled with those in attendance at court-jury, with messes and attorneys. Work is laid out for the jury until next Tuesday or Wednesday, and Judge Parker has kept them very busy thus far this week, beginning sessions at 9 o'clock in the morning and holding evening sessions.

Boulder lodge No. 13, Degree of Honor, had a social session and installation of officers Monday evening. The officers are: Mrs. John Berke, chief of honor; Mrs. Dan Merrill, lady of honor; Mrs. Will Hay, chief of ceremonies; Mrs. D. H. Hafford, recorder; Mrs. Beck Barreau, financial secretary; Mrs. J. T. Fletcher, receiver; Mrs. A. H. Foster, guide.

The local board of trustees for the school for the deaf and blind held a meeting Tuesday, at which allowing bills and other routine work was the business transacted. C. S. Hairo, state architect, was here in conference with the board. Work on the building was delayed for a time on account of a shortage in the supply of brick, but regular shipments are now arriving on Boulder and it is expected that the work will be rapidly pushed. However, there is some fear expressed by Boulder people who are anxious to see the building completed that the failure to find a market for the bonds may cause a delay in construction.

Mrs. Cooney of Great Falls stopped here on her way home from a trip to Salt Lake and Denver and visited with her sister, Mrs. Johnson, of the upper valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Wickes have returned from Corbin and moved into the house formerly occupied by Mr. Taylor on Second avenue.
